

(Amendment 11 to B. A. I. Order 276)

United States Department of Agriculture

BUREAU OF ANIMAL INDUSTRY

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE PREPARATION, SALE, BARTER, EXCHANGE, SHIPMENT, AND IMPORTATION OF VIRUSES, SERUMS, TOXINS, AND ANALOGOUS PRODUCTS INTENDED FOR USE IN THE TREATMENT OF DOMESTIC ANIMALS

(EFFECTIVE ON AND AFTER FEBRUARY 1, 1934)

UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY,
Washington, D. C., January 3, 1934.

Under authority conferred by law upon the Secretary of Agriculture, B. A. I. Order 276, dated August 18, 1922, and effective November 1, 1922, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

Paragraph 2, section 5, Regulation 18, is revoked.

Subdivision (b), paragraph 2, section 10, Regulation 19, as amended, is revoked, and in lieu thereof the following subdivision is prescribed:

(b) Clear anti-hog-cholera serum mixed on and after the date of this amendment shall consist of not less than 88 percent of true serum and not more than 12 percent of such solutions as are required for the clarification of the blood and the preservation of the serum. The completed product shall represent not more than 83 percent of the defibrinated hyperimmune blood used, or 80.51 percent of the whole hyperimmune blood used in its preparation.

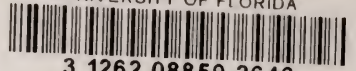

Paragraph 5, Section 11, Regulation 19, as amended, is revoked, and in lieu thereof the following paragraph is prescribed:

PARAGRAPH 5. Trade labels affixed to or used in connection with the immediate or true containers of anti-hog-cholera serum shall show the quantity of the contents of said containers. Said labels for clear serum containing not less than 84 percent of true serum may show that the product contains 80 percent protective serum, provided it is marketed before December 1, 1934. After said date labels for clear serum containing not less than 88 percent of true serum may show that the product conforms to the provisions of subdivision (b) of this amendment.

This amendment, designated as Amendment 11 to B. A. I. Order 276, shall become and be effective on and after February 1, 1934, except as provided herein.

R. G. TUGWELL,
Acting Secretary of Agriculture.
